6 Enrollment Procedures

Accepted students must complete the necessary procedures by Friday, July 31, 2015

7 Enrollment Date

Thursday, October 1, 2015

8 Supports for Enrollees

The following financial assistances will be provided to those who have completed the enrollment procedures.

(1) Entrance Examination Fee and Admission fee

Exempted

(2) Tuition Fees

Exempted for the designated duration of a doctoral program (three consecutive years)

(3) Stipend

Students will be provided with a monthly stipend of 150,000 yen. (If students belong to the Department of Health Promotion Sciences of Graduate School of Human Health Sciences, 180,000 yen will be provided as a monthly stipend.) The period of the stipend is three consecutive years for doctoral program from commencement to the final month.

(4) Travel Expenses

Students will be provided with a one-way ticket (economy-class) from the nearest international airport to the place where they live to Narita International Airport (up to 130,000 yen.) When students return to their country after receiving a degree, a return ticket (economy-class) from either Narita International Airport or Haneda International Airport to the nearest international airport to the place where they came from will be provided (up to 130,000 yen). Students need to pay transportation fee from Narita International Airport to the campus or from the campus to either Narita or Haneda Airport by themselves.

*In case providing a ticket by the University is difficult, students must reserve a plane ticket by themselves and its air fare will be borne by the University (up to 130,000 yen).

*The return ticket will not be provided for students who do not fulfill the requirements of each degree or withdraw from the University. (In case the students earn required number of credits in designated period of time and withdraw from the University, the travel expenses will be covered by the University.)

(5) Housing Assistances

Rental housing is introduced through the real estate company which TMU designates. Students make a contract with a building owner directly.

*Students are responsible for the rent, utility costs, phone and Internet costs, common-area charges, residents' association fees, food expenses etc.

*Accommodation arrangement is made only for single stay students. TMU is not able to introduce any family-type accommodation. If students wish to live with their family, TMU is not capable to provide any help on family matters. Students need to be responsible for all procedures regarding their family.

* In the event that students violate their pledge made at their enrollment or significantly infringe the rules, regulations, etc. of Tokyo Metropolitan University, the University shall expel them from the University and discontinue the aforementioned financial supports. The University may also demand full payment of the enrollment fees or a refund of the money already paid as financial supports depending on the situation.

*In addition to the above, in the event that students take a leave of absence from the University or neglect the monthly confirmation of the enrollment, etc., the University may take measures to suspend the payment of financial supports such as "exemption of tuition fees" and "monthly stipend."

Duties after the graduation

By utilizing the knowledge and technology gained during the stay at TMU, students who completed the program must cooperate in the formation of human network and contribute to promoting the strength of mutual understanding/friendship between Tokyo and international cities.
